Find out about the assistive technology classes Jim is offering this spring. Chat with Amy Wurf, low vision therapist, who will use the LuxIQ to determine your preferred lighting strength and color. Find out how Amy's low vision evaluations may improve your daily living activities. Learn about the assistive technology and low vision evaluations and services. Visit with Brent Perzentka, Sharper Vision Store manager. See products such as the OrCam glasses and portable video magnifiers. Meet others on our talented staff. Try the newest accessible voting machine, the ExpressVote. Jennifer Haar, City of Madison Clerk's Office, and Sara Linski, Wisconsin Elections Commission, will demonstrate it. Come and go as your schedule permits. Light refreshments will be served.
